Course Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course, students will be able to:

- CLO1: Explain the major theories and models of the public policy process—agenda setting, formulation, legitimation, implementation, and evaluation.
- CLO2: Analyze how public problems are defined and reach the policy agenda within institutional, political, and economic contexts.
- CLO3: Identify and assess the policy instruments and budgetary tools used to address public problems.
- CLO4: Evaluate policy implementation and outcomes using empirical evidence and established analytical criteria.
- CLO5: Apply policy-process frameworks to substantive areas (economic, tax, health, education, energy/environment, social welfare).
- CLO6: Communicate policy analysis clearly and professionally in writing, and strengthen that writing through feedback and revision.
- CLO7: Uphold ethical standards and the responsible use of evidence—including disclosure and verification of any AI assistance.

The Writing Spine

The course is designed around writing. Each module pairs a Peters reading with a short Brief Essay on which the instructor returns individualized written comments. That feedback carries forward into the capstone Policy Memo, developed on the public policy issue each student selects in Module 1 and completed through a proposal → draft (feedback) → revised final cycle. Weekly Discussions and short Quizzes reinforce the readings; a cumulative Final Exam confirms command of the framework and substantive areas.
